Global flexibility for superior long-term risk-adjusted results

Simplified retirement plan menus with broader investment strategies can help 1) improve participant outcomes, 2) streamline the governance process for plan sponsors and 3) enable deeper due diligence.

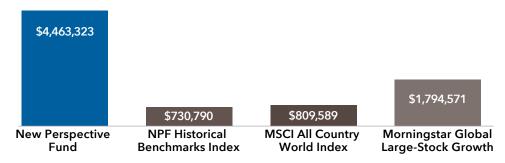

New Perspective Fund may fit this approach as a strategy that:

- Invests primarily in multinational companies with a meaningful share of their sales and operations outside of their home countries.
- Seeks to take advantage of evolving global trade patterns by predominantly investing in companies that have potential for growth in capital.

Figures shown are past results for Class R-6 shares and are not predictive of results in future periods. Current and future results may be lower or higher than those shown. Prices and returns will vary, so investors may lose money. Investing for short periods makes losses more likely. For current information and month-end results, visit capitalgroup.com/retire.

A legacy of over 52 years of success

By December 31, 2024, an initial $10,000 hypothetical investment made on March 13, 1973, would have grown to:

Investments are not FDIC-insured, nor are they deposits of or guaranteed by a bank or any other entity, so they may lose value.

The market indexes are unmanaged and, therefore, have no expenses. Investors cannot invest directly in an index. There have been periods when the fund has lagged the indexes.

Experienced investment team with a long-term focus

- Ten portfolio managers with a median 31 years of investment industry experience as of the most recent prospectus at the time of publication.
- Portfolio managers are compensated with an emphasis on long-term results.<sup>4</sup>

Higher Sharpe ratio illustrates better risk-return profile

Sharpe ratio divides excess return by standard deviation to calculate reward per unit of risk; a higher number indicates better historical risk-adjusted returns.

After-trailing excess return:	3.67%	1.37%	N/A	N/A	N/A	N/A

Use rolling periods to consider success rate: how often the fund outpaced peers/benchmarks; excess returns: the fund's average annualized return relative to that of peers/benchmarks; resiliency: after trailing, how often the fund came back to outpace peers/benchmarks in the first subsequent period; and after-trailing excess return: the fund's average annualized return relative to that of peers/benchmarks in the first subsequent periods after trailing.

Calculated by Capital Group based on data from Morningstar. For resiliency and after-trailing excess returns, subsequent periods start at the end of a trailing period; for example, if the fund trailed in the 10-year period ended 3/31/99, the subsequent period would be the period from 4/1/99 to 3/31/09. Resiliency and after-trailing excess return data does not include periods ended within the last three, five and 10 years because full subsequent periods were not available. "N/A" signifies that the fund did not lag over any periods or, if it did lag, no full subsequent periods were available.

Investors should carefully consider investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. This and other important information is contained in the fund prospectuses and summary prospectuses, which can be obtained from a financial professional and should be read carefully before investing.

Investing outside the United States involves risks, such as currency fluctuations, periods of illiquidity and price volatility, as more fully described in the prospectus. These risks may be heightened in connection with investments in developing countries.

We offer a range of share classes designed to meet the needs of retirement plan sponsors and participants. The different share classes incorporate varying levels of financial professional compensation and service provider payments. Because Class R-6 shares do not include any recordkeeping payments, expenses are lower and results are higher. Other share classes that include recordkeeping costs have higher expenses and lower results than Class R-6. Class R-6 shares were first offered on May 1, 2009. Class R-6 share results prior to the date of first sale are hypothetical based on Class A share results without a sales charge, adjusted for typical estimated expenses. Refer to the fund's prospectus for more information on specific expenses.

The expense ratio is as of the fund's prospectus available at the time of publication. Investment results assume all distributions are reinvested and reflect applicable fees and expenses. When applicable, results reflect fee waivers and/or expense reimbursements, without which they would have been lower. Visit capitalgroup.com for more information. New Perspective Fund (NPF) Historical Benchmarks Index returns reflect the results of the MSCI World Index from 3/13/73 through 09/30/2011 and the MSCI All Country World Index, the fund's current primary benchmark, thereafter. MSCI World Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index that is designed to measure equity market results of developed markets. The index consists of more than 20 developed market country indexes, including the United States. MSCI All Country World Index is a free float-adjusted market capitalization weighted index that is designed to measure equity market results in the global developed and emerging markets. The index consists of more than 40 developed and emerging market country indexes. Results reflect dividends net of withholding taxes. These indexes are unmanaged, and their results include reinvested dividends and/or distributions but do not reflect the effect of sales charges, commissions, account fees, expenses or U.S. federal income taxes. The MSCI ACWI Index began after the fund's inception. From March 13, 1973, through December 31, 1987, the MSCI World Index was used.

Morningstar Global Large-Stock Growth category portfolios primarily invest in international stocks that are projected to grow faster than other global large-cap stocks. Global large-stock growth portfolios have few geographical limitations. They typically invest the majority of their assets in developed markets and maintain at least a 20% absolute U.S. exposure. The Morningstar category average includes all share classes for the funds in the category. While American Funds Class R-6 shares do not include fees for financial professional compensation and third-party service provider payments, the share classes represented in the Morningstar category have varying fee structures and can include these and other fees and charges resulting in higher expenses and lower results than American Funds Class R-6 shares.

<sup>2</sup>As of June 24, 2025. The Morningstar Medalist Rating is not a credit or risk rating. It is a subjective evaluation performed by Morningstar's manager research group, which consists of various Morningstar, Inc. subsidiaries ("Manager Research Group"). In the United States, that subsidiary is Morningstar Research Services LLC, which is registered with and governed by the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission. The Manager Research Group evaluates funds based on five key pillars, which are process, performance, people, parent, and price. The Manager Research Group uses this five-pillar evaluation to determine how they believe funds are likely to perform relative to a benchmark over the long term on a risk adjusted basis. They consider quantitative and qualitative factors in their research. For actively managed strategies, people and process each receive a 45% weighting in their analysis, while parent receives a 10% weighting. For passive strategies, process receives an 80% weighting, while people and parent each receive a 10% weighting. For both active and passive strategies, performance has no explicit weight as it is incorporated into the analysis of people and process; price at the shareclass level (where applicable) is directly subtracted from an expected gross alpha estimate derived from the analysis of the other pillars. The impact of the weighted pillar scores for people, process and parent on the final Analyst Rating is further modified by a measure of the dispersion of historical alphas among relevant peers. For certain peer groups where standard benchmarking is not applicable, primarily peer groups of funds using alternative investment strategies, the modification by alpha dispersion is not used. The Medalist Rating scale is Gold, Silver, Bronze, Neutral, and Negative. For active funds, a Morningstar Medalist Rating of Gold, Silver, or Bronze reflects the Manager Research Group's expectation that an active fund will be able to deliver positive alpha net of fees relative to the standard benchmark index assigned to the Morningstar category. The level of the rating relates to the level of expected positive net alpha relative to Morningstar category peers for active funds. For passive funds, a Morningstar Medalist Rating of Gold, Silver, or Bronze reflects the Manager Research Group's expectation that a fund will be able to deliver a higher alpha net of fees than the lesser of the relevant Morningstar category median or 0. The level of the rating relates to the level of expected net alpha relative to Morningstar category | Morningstar Analyst and Quantitative Rating Morningstar Essentials 31 peers for passive funds. For certain peer groups where standard benchmarking is not applicable, primarily peer groups of funds using alternative investment strategies, a Morningstar Medalist Rating of Gold, Silver, or Bronze reflects the Manager Research Group's expectation that a fund will deliver a weighted pillar score above a predetermined threshold within its peer group. Medalist Ratings ultimately reflect the Manager Research Group's overall assessment, are overseen by an Analyst Rating Committee, and are continuously monitored and reevaluated at least every 14 months. For more detailed information about Morningstar's Medalist Rating, including its methodology, please go to shareholders.morningstar.com/investor-relations/governance/ Compliance--Disclosure/default. The Morningstar Medalist Rating (i) should not be used as the sole basis in evaluating a fund, (ii) involves unknown risks and uncertainties which may cause the Manager Research Group's expectations not to occur or to differ significantly from what they expected, and (iii) should not be considered an offer or solicitation to buy or sell the fund.

Morningstar's screening took into consideration expense ratios, manager ownership, returns over manager's tenure, and Morningstar Risk, Medalist and Parent ratings. The universe was limited to share classes accessible to individual investors with a minimum investment no greater than $50,000, did not include funds of funds, and must be rated by Morningstar analysts. <sup>4</sup>Compensation paid to our investment professionals is heavily influenced by investment results over one-, three-, five- and eight-year periods. Increasing weight is placed on each successive measurement period to encourage a long-term investment approach.

<sup>5</sup>Annualized standard deviation (based on monthly returns at net asset value) is a common measure of absolute volatility that represents how returns over time have varied from the mean. A lower number signifies lower volatility.

Although target date portfolios are managed for investors on a projected retirement date time frame, the allocation strategy does not guarantee that investors' retirement goals will be met. Investment professionals manage the portfolio, moving it from a more growth-oriented strategy to a more income-oriented focus as the target date gets closer. The target date is the year that corresponds roughly to the year in which an investor is assumed to retire and begin taking withdrawals. Investment professionals continue to manage each portfolio for approximately 30 years after it reaches its target date.
