¹Morningstar examined companies' cultures and ethical track records, along with the factors considered in its Morningstar Medalist Rating™ to determine rating for a fund company in one of five buckets: Low, Below Average, Average, Above Average, and High, with High being the best. Capital Group received a Parent rating of High as of December 2024. 6.4% of 172 firms analyzed also received the same rating as of that date. The parent pillar rating is a current view and is reflective of a firm's history, both recent and long-term. Capital Group did not compensate Morningstar for the ratings and comments contained in this material. However, the firm has paid Morningstar a licensing fee to access and publish its ratings data. Data Coverage

The Data Coverage % data point is a summary metric describing the level of data completeness used to generate the overall rating. If the pillar is assigned directly or indirectly by analysts, the pillar has complete data availability, as no model was used to estimate the pillar score. If the pillar is assigned directly by algorithm, Morningstar counts the number of data points feeding both the positive and negative models and counts whether the vehicle has strategy-specific data available. A simple percentage is calculated per pillar. Each pillar-completeness metric is scaled by the weights listed in the section "Derive the Rating." For example, consider an active fund where all three pillar ratings are indirectly assigned by an analyst. In that scenario, the Data Coverage % data point would be 100%. However, if the analyst coverage changed and the People Pillar was no longer indirectly assigned by an analyst, then the People Pillar would be assigned directly by an algorithm. Across both the Positive and Negative People models, the algorithm uses 28 data points. Suppose the fund has all the input data for those data points except for the Manager Excess Return – 5-Year data point, which appears in both the Positive and Negative models. Under that scenario, Morningstar would have coverage of 26 out of 28 required People Pillar data points, or 92.9%. Since the People Pillar is a 45% weight for active funds, that would mean the overall data coverage would be 96.9% (45% for the Process Pillar plus 10% for the Parent Pillar plus 41.9% for the People Pillar).

Analyst-Driven

The Analyst-Driven % data point displays the weighted percentage of a vehicle's pillar ratings assigned directly or indirectly by analysts. For example, if the People and Parent ratings are assigned directly or indirectly by analysts but the Process rating is assigned algorithmically, the Analyst-Driven % for an actively managed vehicle would disclose that 55% of the pillar weight was assigned by analysts and the Analyst-Driven % for a passively managed vehicle would disclose that 20% of the pillar weight was assigned by analysts.

The Morningstar Medalist Rating™ is the summary expression of Morningstar's forward-looking analysis of investment strategies as offered via specific vehicles using a rating scale of Gold, Silver, Bronze, Neutral, and Negative. The Medalist Ratings indicate which investments Morningstar believes are likely to outperform a relevant index or peer group average on a risk-adjusted basis over time. Investment products are evaluated on three key pillars (People, Parent, and Process) which, when coupled with a fee assessment, forms the basis for Morningstar's conviction in those products' investment merits and determines the Medalist Rating they're assigned. Pillar ratings take the form of Low, Below Average, Average, Above Average, and High. Pillars may be evaluated via an analyst's qualitative assessment (either directly to a vehicle the analyst covers or indirectly when the pillar ratings of a covered vehicle are mapped to a related uncovered vehicle) or using algorithmic techniques. Vehicles are sorted by their expected performance into rating groups defined by their Morningstar Category and their active or passive status. When analysts directly cover a vehicle, they assign the three pillar ratings based on their qualitative assessment, subject to the oversight of the Analyst Rating Committee, and monitor and reevaluate them at least every 14 months. When the vehicles are covered either indirectly by analysts or by algorithm, the ratings are assigned monthly. For more detailed information about these ratings, including their methodology, please go to global.morningstar.com/managerdisclosures/. The Morningstar Medalist Ratings are not statements of fact, nor are they credit or risk ratings. The Morningstar Medalist Rating (i) should not be used as the sole basis in evaluating an investment product, (ii) involves unknown risks and uncertainties which may cause expectations not to occur or to differ significantly from what was expected, (iii) are not guaranteed to be based on complete or accurate assumptions or models when determined algorithmically, (iv) involve the risk that the return target will not be met due to such things as unforeseen changes in management, technology, economic development, interest rate development, operating and/or material costs, competitive pressure, supervisory law, exchange rate, tax rates, exchange rate changes, and/or changes in political and social conditions, and (v) should not be considered an offer or solicitation to buy or sell the investment product. A change in the fundamental factors underlying the Morningstar Medalist Rating can mean that the rating is subsequently no longer accurate. Capital Group did not compensate Morningstar for the ratings and comments contained in this material. However, the firm has paid Morningstar a licensing fee to access and publish its ratings data. The payment of this subscription fee does not give rise to a material conflict with Morningstar.

Morningstar's screening took into consideration expense ratios, manager ownership, returns over manager's tenure, and Morningstar Risk, Analyst and Parent ratings. Our Core and Core-Plus bond funds have offered better diversification amid equity volatility

While excess return is an important derivative of successful ingredients, it's not the only one. For fixed income funds, the ability to offer diversification during equity downturns can be critical to the success of any portfolio.

Figures shown are past results as of December 31, 2024, and are not predictive of results in future periods. Returns for mutual funds are based on Class F-2 shares. Current and future results may be lower or higher than those shown. Prices and returns will vary, so investors may lose money. Investing for short periods makes losses more likely. Average cumulative excess return

² Sources: Capital Group, Morningstar. As of 12/31/24. Averages were calculated by using the cumulative returns of funds versus Morningstar categories shown during the nine equity market correction periods since 2010, except for American Funds Strategic Bond Fund – the calculation for which only includes five periods after its March 2016 inception. Corrections are based on price declines of 10% or more (without dividends reinvested) in the S&P 500 Index with at least 75% recovery. The cumulative returns are based on total returns. Ranges of returns for the equity corrections measured: The Bond Fund of America: -14.07% to 3.41%; American Funds Strategic Bond Fund: -14.46% to 3.04%; Morningstar US Fund Intermediate Core-Plus Bond: -14.73% to 2.25%; Morningstar US Fund Multisector Bond: -14.08% to -0.75%; S&P 500 Index: -33.79% to -9.94%. There have been periods when the funds have lagged the categories and the index, such as in rising equity markets.

Model portfolios are subject to the risks associated with the underlying funds in the model portfolio. Investors should carefully consider investment objectives, risks, fees and expenses of the funds in the model portfolio, which are contained in the fund prospectuses. Investing outside the United States involves risks, such as currency fluctuations, periods of illiquidity and price volatility. These risks may be heightened in connection with investments in developing countries. Smaller company stocks entail additional risks, and they can fluctuate in price more than larger company stocks. The return of principal for bond funds and for funds with significant underlying bond holdings is not guaranteed. Fund shares are subject to the same interest rate, inflation and credit risks associated with the underlying bond holdings. Lower rated bonds are subject to greater fluctuations in value and risk of loss of income and principal than higher rated bonds. Investments in mortgage-related securities involve additional risks, such as prepayment risk. The use of derivatives involves a variety of risks, which may be different from, or greater than, the risks associated with investing in traditional securities, such as stocks and bonds. A nondiversified fund has the ability to invest a larger percentage of assets in the securities of a smaller number of issuers than a diversified fund. As a result, poor results by a single issuer could adversely affect fund results more than if the fund were invested in a larger number of issuers. See the applicable prospectus for details.

Capital Group manages equity assets through three investment groups. These groups make investment and proxy voting decisions independently. Fixed income investment professionals provide fixed income research and investment management across the Capital organization; however, for securities with equity characteristics, they act solely on behalf of one of the three equity investment groups.

Investors should carefully consider investment objectives, risks, charges and expenses. This and other important information is contained in the fund prospectuses and summary prospectuses, which can be obtained from a financial professional and should be read carefully before investing.
